Ted Rodopoulos

He is the inspirer and the soul of the SBC. Widely respected for his knowledge on basketball, coach Ted Rodopoulos is the man who first introduced Basketball Camps in Greece. He has enjoyed success both as a player and a coach, with international experience, being a member of the National Team at every age level. He started coaching at a very young age. He perfected his knowledge in the States where he first went on 1970. A member of the National Association of Basketball Coaches in the USA for 41 years. He is considered to be the best X's and O's man, a coach with vast knowledge and experience. He always gives the best during every camp day being focused on the improvement of young players. He strongly believes that the big drawback of players in Greece is their lack in fundamentals. Basketball camps worldwide, such as the SBC, help players understand this fact and get better by working on the fundamentals of the game. "If the teacher does not love teaching, the pupil will often hate learning" Over the 36 years of the Camp's existence the stuff at SBC has come to symbolize excellence in instructional basketball.

Shooting Camp 2018

The most important part of SBC is the Shooting Camp. Coach Pat Sullivan started the first Shooting Camp in 1990 and his associate. Mike Kress, continued the Shooting Camp for seven years after that. Then coach John Baines was in charge and today head of the shooting camp is the American coach John Spezia. 20 hours of Shooting Camp, along with the video station with Vangelis Poulianitis, give to the particapant the opportunity to see their improvement at their shooting skills, something fundamental in basketball. It is our best program in the past 5 years. Main coaches for many seasons are Th. Molyvdas, K. Vlostos and G. Zampelakis. 27 years of experience and excellent work of SBC coaches guarantees success at Shooting Camp 2018. Do not lose it!
